

Technology And You

The median wage for Computer science professions was

$88,240 in 2019

That's over 220% of the national average.

The U.S. Is expected to add over 531,000 new jobs in the industry by 2029

Not everyone can get paid $100k a year to sit at a computer all day and type.

But You
Can

Additional Resources:

Try these 6 Websites to learn more!

For labor and wage statistics:

<https://www.bls.gov/ooh/computer-and-information-technology/home.htm>

For What can you do with a CS Degree:

<https://www.usnews.com/education/best-graduate-schools/articles/2019-05-02/what-can-you-do-with-a-computer-science-degree>

To compare CS jobs with Other Fields:

<https://www.computerscience.org/careers/>

To compare CS jobs by benefits:

<https://www.thebalancecareers.com/top-jobs-for-computer-science-majors-2059634>

Find out which CS degree is right for you:

<https://www.nu.edu/resources/which-computer-science-career-is-right-for-me/>

To find out common requirements:

<https://www.bestcomputerscienceschools.net/what-are-the-requirements-for-a-career-in-computer-science/>